desirably denied by the Government, who stated that they did not think it incumbent to do so, to protect all the petty kings, princes, and chiefs of the South Sea Islands.

ENGLISH FOOTBALLERS IN AUSTRALIA.

SYDNEY, 30th May.

The English footballers arrived in Sydney on Wednesday, and will play a combined N.S.W. team on Saturday, under Rugby rules.

In the match between the English footballers and the New South Wales Rugby team, the visitors obtained eighteen points to the Rugby's two. Stoddart's ankle was so severely twisted that he will not be able to play again.

TASMANIA.

5th June. In consequence of the expenditure of the Tasmanian Government having largely exceeded their income it has become necessary to greatly increase the taxation.

It is proposed to impose a higher tariff all round on imports, and to increase the land and property taxes a half-penny in the £.

It is also proposed to float a loan of £1,000,000 at three and a half per cent.

THE EMPEROR DRESDEN.

LONDON, 6th May. The Emperor Frederick III. is in the present crisis in European affairs, hesitating to prolong the diet. It is probable therefore that it will be dissolved.

LONDON.

The Emperor Frederick III. has successfully cleared the German diet.

AN ANARCHIST PLOT.

LONDON, 4th May. It is reported that an Anarchist plot to murder Prince Bismarck and the Crown Prince William has been discovered.

THE "PALL MALL GAZETTE" AND THE CROWN.

LONDON, 6th May. Mr. W. M. Stead, of the "Pall Mall Gazette," has had an interview with the Czar; the details have not transpired.

THE SITUATION IN EUROPE.

LONDON, 10th May. A conspiracy, in which the Servian Army is involved, has been discovered at Belgrade, the object of the conspirators being to arrest King Milan and many of his Majesty's trusted adherents, and to proclaim Prince Karageorgevitch king.

LONDON.

It is stated that the Government of Germany is about to take stringent steps to prevent intimacy between the French and the Alsatians and Lorraines.

LONDON.

Intelligence is to hand from Paris to the effect that the Government has entered into agreement with the Messerschmitt Company, and the Transvaal Company, for fourteen of the best pieces of ordnance of the latest design prepared for instant equipment as auxiliary ordnance. A commission has been appointed and is now sitting, to decide on the class of armament to be placed aboard the cruisers.

LONDON.

Complying with a recent suggestion made in the German official Press, Austria has largely reinforced her troops on the Galician frontier. The Emperor Francis Joseph is determined to make an audience with the Emperor of Austria, here, for the purpose of inspecting the Austrian Military arrangements.

LONDON.

The Austro-Hungarian semi-official Press, the "Neue Freie Presse," in its issue to-day, contains an article on the situation in the Allies, in which it is announced that the Allies (i.e., Austria, France, and Italy) are determined to keep Russia within her bounds, and will fight to the power, if necessary, in order to secure permanent peace for Europe.

It is stated that leading Armenians, both in Armenia and Constantinople, being disgusted with the caution exercised by England in dealing with Turkey in the matter of the reforms in the government of the province of Armenia, will be induced to go to England to present their views to the Queen.

LONDON.

The London and Paris Press charge the Premiers of Austria-Hungary and Germany with trying to create a panic, with the purpose in view of increasing the strength of their standing armies—probably with interior disturbances.

THE AUSTRALIAN CRICKETERS IN ENGLAND.

LONDON.

The Australian cricketers commenced a match against the Gentlemen of England at Lord's to-day. The Australians went first to the wicket, and were all disposed of for 98. The English batted next, and composed a score of 163, of which Jones contributed 57, and Turner 22. The Lancashire team in their second innings had run up a total of 100 for the loss of six wickets when the stumps were drawn for the day.

LONDON.

The Australian cricketers, in their first innings, against the Gentlemen of England at Lord's to-day, obtained three extras. The Gentlemen have thus scored 235 with the loss of one wicket.

LATE.

Graves and Shattock together scored 158 without a wicket before the latter played on to his wicket. Six different wickets were taken by the batsmen completely secured the bowling. During the last half-hour Graves put together fifty runs, and the display of cricket was the finest ever seen. Eleven thousand spectators were present, and the greatest interest was manifested in the match. During the afternoon the English players were scoring at the rate of twenty runs an hour.

LONDON.

Mr. Doberck had his hand injured, and was unable to play.

LONDON.

The match will be concluded to-morrow (Friday) on account of Wednesday being Derby Day.

LONDON.

The match between the Australian Eleven and the Gentlemen of England was resumed at Lord's to-day. The Englishman, with one wicket down to 235, resumed their first innings, and when the adjournment was made for lunch, had scored 411 with a loss of four wickets. W. G. Grace, who had been out for 100, and 100, and 150, had his 150, and was unable to play.

The Australian Eleven will commence a match against the Players of England, at Kennington Oval, on Thursday. The English team will consist of the following players—Gunn, Barnes, Limited, Pool, Preston, M. Head, Lehmann, Abel, Wood, Flowers, and Wright.

LONDON, 4th June.

In the match between the Australian Eleven and the Professionals, the latter went in first, and made 231. The Australians made a poor start, their first innings only yielding 127. The dolls were added to their total, and the players' 111 to get to win, which they did, without the loss of a wicket.

In the match against Nottingham, which is now in progress, the County team were dismissed for 215 runs. The Australians made 237 for the loss of two wickets.
